The classrooms and meeting rooms at the Charity's Education Centre and Headquarters are available for hire to relevant organisations, offering the ultimate change of scenery for those all important meetings, conferences and seminars.

Nestled in 150 acres of stunning parkland, woodland and formal gardens, yet only 5 minutes away from the nearest train station, it offers a haven of tranquillity, a world away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

For overnight events, Hethfelton House offers a range of accommodation to suit your needs. Whether it is a meeting, conference, team building, or corporate event, the location could not be more perfect. Situated in the heart of the Purbecks, yet only a stone's throw away from the World Heritage Jurassic Coast, the area has an abundance of leisure activities available, including world renowned Ape Rescue Centre, Monkey World, situated immediately adjacent to the centre.
